

EXHIBITOR IN RAUGM

Exhibitors are the core of the Annual Meeting of the Mexican Geophysical Union (RAUGM). They offer attendees a broader view of various aspects of the current state of Earth Sciences, from the new technological developments in geophysical instrumentation and services to academic opportunities in the country.

Meanwhile, the exhibitors are benefited in RAUGM by meeting potential clients, prospective employees or students. They have the opportunity to meet face to face and exchange ideas. They can also keep up to date of the latest in science.

ABOUT PARTICIPANTS OF THE RAUGM

RAUGM participants are primarily from academia: researchers and students, but we also have the participation of employees of public organizations or private geophysics companies. All of them look from the exhibitors the latest geophysical instruments, tools and accessories for their projects, or academic or employment opportunities.

From the participants, there is a high percentage of students, both from graduate and undergraduate level. Both groups seeking contact with geophysical companies interested in hiring. Undergraduate students, in particular, are seeking for the best graduate program according to their interests. The average attendance is 600 participants; however, on 2012 we reached almost 1000. We expect a similar attendance this year.
